

Chantel Clarke MA, LPC, LCDC was born and raised in San Antonio. She completed her undergraduate work at University of the Incarnate Word in 2015 where she majored in Psychology and minored in Sociology. She then completed a Masters of Arts in Clinical Mental Health Counseling at Texas A&M San Antonio in 2018. She is now licensed in the State of Texas as a Professional Counselor and Licensed Chemical Dependency Counselor.

She currently works with the Bexar County jail population assisting those that need mental health services to get those services after they have been released from jail. She is the Director for Chop It Up Ballers Basketball Non-Profit Organization and the administrator for Chop It Up Barber College. She also does private counseling sessions through Better Help. She enjoys working with non-profit organizations giving back to the youth and those in need throughout the community. Chantel is the oldest of 5 and takes pride in her role as a big sister and role-model to her family.