EARLY CHILDHOOD STUDIES

*“There are three ways to ultimate success:
The first way is to be kind. The second way is to be kind. The third way is to be kind.”*

– Fred Rogers

Michelle Ramelli was born in San Antonio, an eighth generation Tejano whose ancestors helped to settle the city. Because her father and husband are both military veterans, she spent most of her life moving around. Her husband retired from the service in 2014 and in 2015 they put down roots in San Antonio. Michelle and her husband were married at a young age and she put her education on hold to stay home and raise their children. In the spring of 2020, the world changed. Michelle took this opportunity to finish the degree she began in 1992. Michelle has been on the President’s List multiple times and is proud of her accomplishments while attending SAC. After graduating with her AAS in early childhood education, Michelle plans to pursue her BS in early childhood studies.
