2013 Distinguished Graduate

Emily Drisch English

"It seems only yesterday I used to believe / there was nothing under my skin but light. / If you cut me I could shine. / But now when I fall upon the sidewalks of life, / I skin my knees. I bleed."

-Billy Collins, "On Being Ten"

Biography

Emily Drisch is graduating in the summer of 2013, majoring in English, and is part of the Honor's Academy. She will receive her Associate's in English, and then continue on to a 4 year university to get her Bachelor's degree.

She is in love with the English language and believes that studying or enjoying literature is one of the best ways to learn and acquire knowledge.

As for the title of Distinguished Graduate, she says, "It is a really cool honor that is appreciated to no end." It encourages her to become an even better student than before in order to live up to the honor.
