Biography

Irma Gurrola is a single mother who works and goes to school full-time. Irma's short term goal is to get her Associate's degree in Business Administration, which she will accomplish in May 2013. Irma's long term goal is to transfer to UTSA to achieve a Bachelor's in Business Administration. Her dream is work in an executive level position in a successful company.

Irma knows the keys to achieving that dream are education, hard work, and opportunity. She believes achieving her dream will demonstrate to others that education and hard work can level the playing field and open up great possibilities to become successful and self-sufficient. Someone once told her that, 'Knowledge is something that cannot be taken away from you.'

The knowledge she has gained will always be with her and her educational pursuits have inspired her to greater achievements.
