Brenale Johnson Dance

"The dance is over, the applause subsided, but the joy and feeling will stay with you forever."

—W.M. Tory

Biography

Brenale Johnson began at San Antonio College in the TRIO program where she received help to rent books, plan out the academic year, and stay informed about scholarships. She received the President's Honors in fall 2010 and Honors in spring 2011, fall 2012, and spring 2013.

Brenale is currently the Vice President (and former Secretary) of the Dance Club and running for secretary of the Kinesiology Club. She received an Excellence in Writing Certificate in spring 2011 and is a College Reading and Learning Association Certified Tutor at levels 1, 2, and 3. She also received a Certificate of Appreciation in recognition of selfless devotion to the success of Healthfest 2013 and received a Certificate of Community Service for Fiesta Flambeau Parade Association Inc. on April 16, 2011.

Brenale also taught a Flamenco workshop in December 2011 and received a kinesiology/dance scholarship twice. She volunteers at Our Father of Kingdom Services Ministry, which targets helping the underprivileged. She completed a leadership program at the School of Leaders at Lord of the Harvest Church in January 2009. Brenale recently volunteered at San Antonio Center of Physical Therapy.
