2014 Distinguished Graduate

Catherine Lopez Administrative Assistant

"Success is to be measured not so much by the position one reaches in life as by the obstacles which he has overcome while trying to succeed."

-Booker T. Washington

Biography

Catherine Lopez is an Administrative Computer Technology major at San Antonio College. She is set to graduate in May 2014 and will complete an Associate's degree in the Administrative Assistant program.

Catherine first started at SAC in fall 2007 and took her basics to get a feel for college life. Her major was graphic design, but she learned that was not for her so she decided to look for other options. She discovered administrative computer technology while researching majors online. She took her time finishing up the degree while also taking some photography classes. Photography has always been one of her hobbies, and she plans on starting a small side business with what she has learned.

To complete her administrative assistant internship, she worked at a high school as the campus clerk. Her experience at SAC has been inspirational and graduating means the world to her because it stands for all the hard work she has done.

