"Success is peace of mind which is a direct result of self-satisfaction in knowing you made the effort to do the best of which you are capable."

-John Wooden

Biography

Cynthia Cuenca is a 32 year old single mother of two awesome boys ages 12 and 16. She was born and raised on the Westside of San Antonio, Texas where she attended pre-k through 12th grade in the Edgewood Independent School District. She attended her last four years at John F. Kennedy High School where she encountered many obstacles and new experiences but overcame them all and graduated in 1999.

In 2001, Cynthia attended the National Institute of Technology and obtained a certificate as a medical assistant in February 2002. After many years of secretarial work she decided to go back to school in 2009 at SAC and work toward her dream of a career in the criminal justice field. She is graduating in May 2014 and will then pursue a bachelor's degree at The University of Texas at San Antonio.
