

2014 Distinguished Graduate

Judsarimi Ortiz Early Childhood Studies

"I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

—Philippians 4:13

Biography

Judsarimi Ortiz was born in Humacao, Puerto Rico in 1991. Above all she gives thanks to God, her husband, instructors, and friends for their continuous support, love, and advice.

Judsarimi is a student in the Early Childhood Studies department at San Antonio College. She is majoring in Early Childhood Studies, and will receive her A.A.S. and Level 1 Certificate in Early Childhood Studies in May 2014.

Her accomplishments include receiving two "Excellence in Writing" awards in the Early Childhood Studies Department. She has received the Presidential Honors Award twice for a 4.0 GPA in her studies, and became a member of Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society at St. Phillips College.

Judsarimi plans to transfer to Texas A&M University of San Antonio and pursue her Bachelors in Early Childhood Studies.

ALAMO
COLLEGES

SAN ANTONIO COLLEGE

