

2014 Distinguished Graduate

Selena Portillo Liberal Arts

"The brick walls are there for a reason. The brick walls are not there to keep us out. The brick walls are there to give us a chance to show how badly we want something."

-Randy Pausch

Biography

Matthew 20:16 states, "So the last will be the first, and the first will be the last." Selena Portillo was born in San Angelo, Texas, but her family later relocated to San Antonio, Texas in 2001.

In addition to taking classes at SAC, Selena Portillo is a student at Travis Early College High School where she is an officer and active member of numerous clubs and committees. She is a member of the Beta Nu Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa. She also enjoys volunteering her time in order to give back to the community.

Selena currently has a 4.0 grade point average both at San Antonio College and Travis. In the summer of 2012, she had the opportunity to travel to Australia with a program called People to People. This experience opened her eyes to the beauty in the world and gave her the "travel bug." You may wonder why she made reference to Matthew 20:16. It is because Selena is the last of three children born, but will be the first to graduate from college.
