

2014 Distinguished Graduate

Vanessa Cox Accounting Technology

"You gain strength, courage, and confidence by every experience in which you really stop to look fear in the face. You are able to say to horror, 'I can take the next thing that comes along.' You must do the thing you think you cannot do."

-Eleanor Roosevelt

Biography

Vanessa Cox grew up in El Paso, Texas until her junior year of high school when she moved to Hannibal, Missouri (the home of Mark Twain). She graduated from high school in 2002 and attended a community college in St. Louis for one year before moving back because she missed Texas.

After a long break from college, she enrolled at SAC in 2011. Vanessa graduated from SAC in the fall of 2013 with an Associate's of Applied Science degree in Accounting Technology. She is also a member of the Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society.

Vanessa plans to stay at SAC for another semester to finish up some basic courses needed for a bachelor's degree. Attaining a bachelor's degree is her next pursuit. Her dream is either to open her own CPA office or to be an auditor for the IRS.
