COLLEGE YOU CAN AFFORD!

Support. Guidance. Career Pathway.

Putting you on a path toward an associate degree or certificate and on your way to a high-wage, high demand career.

1 personalized advisor
Each student is assigned an academic advisor to guide them throughout their time at the Alamo Colleges. Advisors help students find the right pathway and classes to achieve their academic and career goals.

6 Institutes. Endless possibilities.

All of our programs are mapped to either employment or transfer to a four-year college. That means you can graduate and get on with your life faster. We even offer short-term certificates and microcredentials that teach skills that can help you become gainfully employed while you're still in college.

Student employment opportunities

Students can get paid while gaining real world experience relevant to their future career while working for one of the Colleges or with a community partner.

Thousands of courses, smaller classes.

Our classes are offered on the weekdays, nights and weekends. All five our of Alamo Colleges offer fully online programs and support services. Regardless of your "home college," you can enroll in classes at any of the five Alamo Colleges to find classes that best fit your schedule. Plus, our smaller classes mean you get to know your peers, and benefit from one-on-one time with your instructors to get help in class or guidance for your future career.

If it gets in the way of learning, we can help.

Life can cause distractions from learning. Whether you need help paying bills, affording health care, putting food on the table, caring for kids in your household, or anything else – we can help. Our college advocacy centers reduce barriers that may prevent you from starting, continuing, or finishing college.

$9,400

Average annual increase in earnings with an associate degree from the Alamo Colleges compared to someone with a high school diploma working in Texas.

1,500+ transfer opportunities

Want to continue your education beyond the Alamo Colleges? You can seamlessly transfer to a partner university through one of our transfer advising guides.
