3. Select Financial Aid heading

4. Select Award
5. Select Award for Aid Year

6. Select appropriate year, then Submit
7. Read the information on the General Information Tab regarding eligibility

All Aid displayed on these pages is tentative pending confirmation of your Financial Aid eligibility.
Your award offer is based on full-time enrollment (12 hours or more). If you do not enroll full-time, your aid will be credited to your account based on your actual enrollment. Your actual aid eligibility will be less than what is displayed if you are not a full-time student.

Disbursement of your aid is contingent upon a complete financial aid application, which requires the following criteria to be met:
1. Your FAFSA must be received by Alamo Colleges. All data must be accurate and complete. The form must be signed by all applicable persons.
2. Verification, if applicable, and any other required documents must be received by Alamo Colleges. All submitted forms must be complete and signed.
3. Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) status
Please be advised that if you are awarded prior to being notified of your Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) status that is calculated following the spring semester and you are found to NOT be meeting SAP your awards will be cancelled.

8. Select the Terms and Conditions Tab - read the Terms and Conditions

Terms and Conditions
1. FEDERAL PELL GRANT: The Pell Grant is a need-based grant offered to eligible undergraduate students enrolled in a degree-seeking program. Eligibility is based on the formula established each year by Federal Government. The amount of a Federal Pell Grant indicated on the award indicates the student’s eligibility based on full-time enrollment for the year (unless otherwise stated).

2. TEXAS STATE GRANT: A State Grant indicated on the award letter is based on notification received from the state agency. Students must maintain academic progress to continue eligibility. State Grant awards can be withdrawn if students fail to meet academic progress requirements as outlined by the State grant agency.

3. FEDERAL SUPPLEMENTAL EDUCATION OPPORTUNITY GRANT (SEOG): Offered to students based on exceptional financial need and available funding levels, with preference given to Federal Pell Grant recipients, in accordance with the guidelines established by the Federal government and the Financial Aid Office.

4. SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS (SAP): Please be advised that if you are awarded prior to being notified of your Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) status that is calculated following the spring semester and you are found to NOT be meeting SAP your awards will be cancelled.
