Promotion

A promotion occurs when a faculty member is placed into a higher professional rank than the faculty member’s current rank, or a non-faculty employee is placed into a position with a higher salary grade than the employee’s current salary grade.

Faculty members shall be granted promotion in professional rank after all required criteria have been satisfactorily fulfilled and appropriate recommendations have been provided.

Qualified employees may be promoted to non-contract, non-faculty positions in the District, in accordance with Policy D.5.1 Employee Compensation and Exempt/Non-Exempt Classification and Procedure D.5.1.3, Classification and Compensation Administration Regulations.

Demotion

For the purpose of this policy, a demotion is defined as a reassignment involving a decrease in an employee’s pay grade or classification.
