The Alamo Colleges Police is requesting assistance in identifying the below pictured individual. On December 7th, 2010, this suspect entered the Loftin Student Center located on the San Antonio College Campus and robbed two students at gunpoint. The suspect then left through the Book Store doors, walked over to E. Dewey Street and then towards MAIN Street. The suspect was wearing a New Orleans Saints baseball cap, black in color and was also wearing a gold necklace with a gold miniature set of stereo headsets (non-working jewelry). The suspect was armed with a small caliber black semi-automatic pistol which had silver wear marks on the slide. Included is a composite obtained from one of the victims and a picture of the baseball cap worn. If you have any information, Please call: 210-485-0187 Sergeant Al Marin, Alamo Colleges Police Department.