The following are some frequently asked questions about the Respiratory Care Technology Program.

How long is the program?

Two years. Program starts in the regular Fall semester (Aug.) and finishes the Summer (Aug.) two years later.

Are classes available on weekend or evenings?

No. The program is only offered during the week and during day time hours.

What is the deadline for applications?

The last day of March each year for that fall admission.

What is the entry level pay for a Respiratory Care Practitioner?

Approximately $2500/month for CRT’s, $3000 for RRT’s. Hospitals are competitive with pay, benefits, and other incentives for employees. The Bureau of Labor Statistics www.bls.gov lists the mean annual income for respiratory therapists at $46,270.00.

Where can I look for information about career in Respiratory Care?

Information can be found on the American Association for Respiratory Care website.

What is the cost per semester for this program?

Please refer to the college’s tuition and fee schedule page. Please note on the tuition schedule there is a special tuition fee of $700 per semester for students enrolled in one of the Allied Health programs. (exception; Health Information Systems the special tuition fee is $500).