DATA POINT

An item of factual information derived from measurement or research

Fall 2010 Tutoring Reports

St. Philip’s College Fall 2010 Tutoring Student’s Demographics

A recent report indicates that the average age of students attending tutoring services at least once during the Fall 2010 semester was 30 years old. Average for 11 or more sessions was 35 making up 54% of students participating in tutoring services this Fall.

Fall 2010 Age Demographic for Students Attending at least 11+ Tutoring Session

- Age 14-21: 30.80%
- Age 22-30: 53.80%
- Age 31+: 15.40%

Fall 2010 Average Age of Students Attending Tutoring Sessions

- 1 Visit
- 2 to 10 Visits
- 11+ Visits

Average Age

Graphs showing age demographics and average ages of students attending tutoring sessions.