

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE ALAMO COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT APPROVING THE REDISTRICTING OF THE COLLEGE DISTRICT'S SINGLE-MEMBER TRUSTEE DISTRICTS AND ESTABLISHING NEW TRUSTEE
DISTRICT BOUNDARY LINES FOR TRUSTEE ELECTIONS BASED ON 2020
CENSUS DATA AND PROVIDING FOR AN EFFECTIVE DATE

WHEREAS, the results of the 2020 federal Census have been considered and indicate that the single-member trustee districts of Alamo Community College District (the "College District") are sufficiently out of population balance to require redistricting in order to comply with the "one-person, one-vote" (equal population) principle established by the U.S. Constitution; and

WHEREAS, the College District engaged the law firm of Bickerstaff Heath Delgado Acosta LLP to act as the College's redistricting consultant, including advising and assisting the Board of Trustees in preparation of a new redistricting plan in compliance with applicable requirements of state and federal law; and

WHEREAS, on November 2, 2021, the Board adopted redistricting criteria to assist the College District and the public in developing redistricting plans which comply with applicable federal and state laws, and the adopted redistricting criteria were applied in the development of the College District's new redistricting plan; and

WHEREAS, on November 2, 2021, the Board also adopted redistricting guidelines regarding the submission of comments and proposed plans by the public, to ensure the ability of the College District to timely receive and adequately consider them; and

WHEREAS, during the redistricting process the College District provided notice to the public of its proposed discussions and development of a redistricting plan through meeting agendas posted in compliance with the Texas Open Meetings Act and notices on the College District's website; and

WHEREAS, the Board has considered the proposed redistricting plan at Board meetings on November 16, 2021, November 30, 2021, December 7, 2021, and December 14, 2021 and called a public hearing on November 30, 2021, and has considered input from the College District's redistricting consultant, and various proposed plans regarding the appropriate reconfiguration of the trustee districts; and

WHEREAS, the Board finds that the attached trustee district redistricting plan is in the best interest of the citizens of the College District, complies with the adopted redistricting criteria, and is believed to comply with all state and federal requirements;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED BY THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE ALAMO COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT:

A. That the existing single-member trustee district boundary lines for the College District are hereby amended, and the new districting plan depicted on the map attached hereto as Exhibit A, defining new trustee districts, as such new districts are further described in the tables attached hereto as Exhibit B reporting populations and demographic statistics for each such new district, is hereby adopted and designated to define the College District's nine single-member trustee districts from and after the Effective Date; that Exhibits A and B are incorporated by reference in and made a part of this ORDER, and shall be kept on file in the Board's Office at 2222 N. Alamo Street, San Antonio, Texas 78215.

B. That the Board hereby provides that the trustees in office at the first election after this redistricting order shall serve for the remainder of their terms in accordance with Section 130.0826 of the Texas Education Code, and that the trustee districts established by this redistricting order shall be filled as the staggered terms of trustees in office expire. The position of each trustee in office will be filled from the new trustee district created by this order for the same position as it becomes vacant.

C. That this ORDER shall take and be given effect immediately; and that hereafter all College District trustee elections shall be held under and in accordance with the new single-member trustee districting plan here adopted by the Board, until such time as a subsequent lawfully-enacted districting plan shall be adopted to replace this plan.

PASSED AND APPROVED by the Board of Trustees of the Alamo Community College District this 14th day of December 2021.
