

Top 15

SAC Brags

of 2015

#15

SAC Public Relations

won three Medallion Awards from the National Council of Marketing and Public Relations (NCMPR).

#8

SAC's Scobee Education Center hosted the Challenger Center's 2015 International Conference.

#14

SAC TRAC, the new Transfer and Career Center, officially opened and began serving students.

#7

The Empowerment Center won the prestigious NACADA award for Outstanding Advising Program.

#13

Awarded two TRIO grants totaling $2 million to serve students with disabilities, veterans and STEM majors.

#6

Opened the Tino & Millie Duran Welcome Center and changed the College's official address to 1819 N. Main Ave.

#12

Designated as a National Center of Academic Excellence in Cyber Defense Two-Year Education (CAE2Y).

#5

Launched a year of "Celebrating 90" in honor of the College's 90th anniversary.

#11

The White House Initiative on Educational Excellence for Hispanics designated SAC a "Bright Spot."

#4

Hosted a SACSCOC's on-site visit and introduced a new Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP) titled "Fearless Learning."

#10

Ranked 11th in the nation for Latino STEM graduates by Excellencia in Education.

#3

Earned $2.62 million for the "Puentes Project," SAC's third Title V grant.

#9

Named a top producer for minorities earning associates degrees in Community College Week magazine.

#2

Received $7.6 million in state funding to build the Veterans Victory Center at SAC.

#1

Awarded 4,000+ degrees and certificates during the 2014-15 academic year and saw a record 1,009 students cross the stage at commencement.

ALAMO COLLEGES

SAN ANTONIO COLLEGE

alamo.edu/sac/SACBrags

#SACBrags