AlamoCARES

No One has the Right to Harm You or to make you feel Uncomfortable

Message from the Alamo Colleges District:

The Alamo Colleges District is committed to providing a supportive learning environment and to fostering, safe, healthy relationships among our students.

The AlamoCARES website provides information on student rights, responsibilities, and on/off campus resources. A Resource Guide for Students explains policies, procedures and support services.

Sexual Assault Prevention for Community Colleges is an online survey and course addressing critical life skills. All entering freshmen, former and transfer students are required to complete Part 1 of SAPCC, by November 1st.

Students in Alamo Colleges District high schools programs are not included in this requirement.

Over half a million college students across the country will join you in completing such educational programs designed to keep you and our colleges safe.

It is our sincere desire that AlamoCARES, SAPCC and other prevention activities regarding dating and domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking will empower you to make well-informed decisions about issues that affect your college years and beyond.

SAPCC Instructions:

2. Look for the AlamoCARES box on the Student tab and read the important message before accessing the course. Note: an alternative training is available; see your Vice President for Student Success for assistance.
