Section (E-5)

All prospective candidates for any office shall file a completed application with Chairperson of the Elections Committee, no later than the date set by the Elections Committee. Only those candidates who have filed an application with the Elections Committee shall be listed on the ballot. The names of the candidates will appear on the ballot by office, in alphabetical order.

Section (E-6)

Write-in candidates will be allowed. All write-in candidates must meet all minimum requirements as outlined in E-4 of the Bylaws and submit an Executive Officer application no later than five school days after the last day of elections.

Section (E-7)

No later than the week before elections, the Elections Committee shall have drawn up election rules and procedures to govern all campaigning and electoral proceedings. The Election Committee may allow voting in by acclamation when candidates run unopposed. The guidelines for the number, size, and placement of all campaign literature, posters, and banners shall be followed by those set by the Elections Committee.

Section (E-8)

The Elections Committee shall hold a candidates meeting prior to each election to distribute and explain all election rules to the candidates. All candidates are subject to the rules established by the Elections Committee and approved by the SGA. Violations of said rules may result in disqualification from candidacy by the Elections Committee and/ or a recommendation for a denial of approval in all further Student Government Association elections.

Section (E-9)

Executive Officers of the SGA are selected by receiving the most votes for that position in an election conducted of all currently enrolled Palo Alto College students.

Section (E-10)

If at any time during the year a position in the SGA becomes vacant, the Executive Committee of the SGA shall appoint an Officer until the next general election.

Section (E-11)

All duly elected SGA officers shall be in compliance with their respective candidacy requirements throughout their terms of office, or face immediate and automatic dismissal from office upon the majority vote by the Executive Committee as outlined in Article VIII.

Article VI – Amendments and By-Laws

Section (AB-1)

All provisions of this Constitution are subject to amendment. Proposed amendments to this Constitution shall be introduced in writing to the Executive Committee of the Student Government Association no less than one regular meeting prior to voting and shall require a 2/3 vote of the voting members present at the meeting for approval.

Section (AB-2)

To change the Bylaws of the SGA, a 2/3 vote of the voting members present shall be required.

Section (AB-3)

Any proposed amendment, together with the parts of the Constitution affected, shall be publicized through all available media to the Student Community.

Section (AB-4)

Proposed amendments shall become effective upon approval of the Student Government, Director of Student Life, the Vice President of Student Success, and the President of the College.

Section (AB-5)

A quorum must be present for a constitutional ratification to take place. The constitution must be ratified by a simple majority.

Article VII – SGA Advisors

Section (A-1)

The Student Government Association may have more than one advisor with at least one being a full-time employee. If no advisors have been approved or if an advisor resigns, the Executive Committee will recommend no less than two (2) and no more than four (4) names to the Vice President of Student Success for approval to serve as advisors. Approval of advisors must also be granted by their department chairperson, Dean and Vice President of Academic Success. An advisor may be removed by 2/3 vote of the Executive Committee of the Student Government Association.

Section (A-2)

The duties of the advisor shall be to offer guidance, encouragement, and support to the organization. Advisors are responsible for verification of grade point averages for all Executive Committee Student Government Association Officers at the close of each semester. At least one advisor must be present at all meetings and functions unless the Executive Committee is otherwise told to proceed in the absence of the advisors.

Section (A-3)

The advisor shall serve as ex-officio, non-voting members of the Executive Committee of the Student Government Association.
