Student Success

SPC Automotive Students Earn Tool Scholarships

St. Philip's College (SPC) Automotive Technology students Oscar Bernache, Sebastian Velasco, Ariel Soto and Justice Munoz, were recently awarded the Spring 2022 GUNN Tool Scholarship award. GUNN Automotive Group has been a continuous supporter of the St. Philip's Automotive department, sponsoring an annual scholarship which gives an entry level tool set to deserving students entering the automotive repair industry. Their contributions give these new graduates a jumpstart to their careers as automotive technicians.

Performance Excellence

SPC Archives African American History

St. Philip's College (SPC) archivist, Becca Barnard, met with stakeholders in Looking Back to Move Forward: San Antonio's African American History, an initiative out of the University of Texas at San Antonio (UTSA) Center for Cultural Sustainability to preserve local African American history. The Archivist is also working with the HBCU Digital Art Project to ensure that the photo and art collections at St. Philip's College are accurately represented in the project's database, which currently includes 107 of our nation's Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU).

Principle-Centered Leadership
