Student Success

Juneteenth Parade

A group comprised of over 30 SPC students, faculty, and staff participated in this year's Juneteenth Parade held on Saturday, June 17. The parade began at Sam Houston High School and ended at Comanche Park 2.

Performance Excellence

Quality Texas Foundation Fellow

The St. Philip's College Dual College, Early College High School, and Pathways in Technology for Early College High School are recipients of the Jobs and Education for Texans Grant. This grant will enable these programs to purchase and upgrade their training tools and equipment in the automotive, manufacturing, and welding programs.

Principle-Centered Leadership

Retirement Celebration

This June a celebration was held in honor of retiree Sergeant Toxie Turner. Sergeant Turner served the Alamo College Community for ten years, seven of which were with St. Philip's College.
