

Tiger Pride

There is always great news to share about our St. Philip's College family. The following achievements align with our College Strategic Objectives: Student Success, Performance Excellence, and Principle-Centered Leadership. Stay up to date with our faculty, staff, and student accomplishments by reading the President's Newsletter online at alamo.edu/spc/newsletter and follow us on social media @GOSPC.

Student Success

SPC Histology Student Earns HBCU Scholarship

St. Philip's College (SPC) Histology student, Satin Allen, was selected as a recipient of the National Association of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (NAHBCU) Title III Administrators, Inc. 2021 Scholarship. The $500 scholarship award recognizes outstanding students enrolled at HBCUs who have achieved academic success and performed exemplary community service.

SPC Hospitality Students Receive $1,000 Scholarships

St. Philip's College (SPC) students and faculty attended this year's San Antonio Hotel & Lodging Association Pineapple Awards Dinner on Nov. 4 at the Marriott RiverCenter Hotel. Six students accompanied five SPC faculty and administrators. Four students - Dolores Tellez, Amanda Stleger, Anna Morales, Massinissa Aoudia and Kimberly Cisneros -- received $1,000 SAHLA scholarships for Spring 2022. Students Anayeli Murrieta and Deresha Nolan also attended.

SPC Team Joins National Ethics Bowl

St. Philip's College (SPC) students, Brandon Cervantes, Richard Garcia, Michael Luna and Maney Walker participated on Nov. 20 in the Association for Practical and Professional Ethics (APPE) Ethics Bowl Competition. They were mentored by faculty members Charlie Langston, Andrew Hill and Marie Feldmeier. The APPE Intercollegiate Ethics Bowl is a tiered competition. Each fall, 12 regional competitions take place at various locations throughout the United States in preparation for the nationwide event, held virtually this year.

Performance Excellence

SPC and SAFD Host Final Pop-Up Market in 2021

St. Philip's College (SPC) Student Advocacy Center and San Antonio Food Bank held a pop-up market on Nov. 4 that served 170 families. This was the last pop-up of the year at SPC, but Spring 2022 dates will be released soon.

Principle-Centered Leadership

SPC Chefs Train High School Teachers

St. Philip's College (SPC) Baking and Pastry chefs held professional development opportunities for high school chefs in the new Tourism, Hospitality and Culinary Arts kitchen labs. Chef De La Fuente held a tartlets Class for ten area teachers. Chef Munoz and Chef Goloby hosted workshops on Pate Choux and Pastry Cream for six local high school teachers. These classes are a great way to build connections that benefit high school student chefs interesting in pursuing degrees and certificates in culinary fields.

President's Newsletter

Fall 2021

Learn More