

Personal Responsibility Learning Outcome: Palo Alto College students connect choices, actions and consequences to ethical decision-making.

Criteria	Highly Competent (4)	Mostly Competent (3)	Needs Improvement (2)	Not Competent (1)
1. Students identify a situation in which an ethical decision is or has been required.	Clearly identifies a situation in which an ethical decision is or has been required.	Somewhat identifies a situation in which an ethical decision is or has been required.	Does not fully identify a situation in which an ethical decision is or has been required.	Does not identify a situation in which an ethical decision is or has been required.
2. Students analyze the situation from more than one ethical perspective and explore the consequences of each decision.	<ul> <li>Clearly analyzes the situation from more than one ethical perspective.</li> <li>Clearly explores the consequences of each decision.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Somewhat analyzes         the situation from         more than one ethical         perspective.</li> <li>Somewhat explores         the consequences of         each decision.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Analyzes the situation from one ethical perspective.</li> <li>Explores the consequences of one ethical perspective.</li> </ul>	Does not analyze the situation from one ethical perspective.
3. Students analyze the situation from their own ethical perspective, clarifying their ethical values in the process.	<ul> <li>Clearly analyzes the situation from a personal ethical perspective.</li> <li>Clearly clarifies a personal ethical value.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Somewhat analyzes         <ul> <li>the situation from a                 personal ethical                      perspective.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Somewhat clarifies a                       personal ethical value.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Does not analyze the situation from a personal ethical perspective.</li> <li>Clarifies a personal ethical value.</li> </ul>	Does not articulate a personal ethical perspective.