HONORARY DEGREE

Johnny Hernandez

Co-founder, True Flavors LLC

Celebrated San Antonio culinary and cultural ambassador Johnny Hernandez is a highly successful chef, restaurateur, author, television personality, arts emissary, entrepreneur, and philanthropist. Hernandez jettisoned onto the national culinary scene more than a dozen years ago and has since come to be regarded as a true Texas treasure, renowned for his culinary skills and high standards, as well as his highly successful group of popular restaurants and culinary enterprises. Widely considered the nation's premier chef specializing in authentic interior Mexican cuisine, as well as a gastronomic gamer-changer and eminent authority on Mexican cooking and culture, Hernandez works, hands-on, at the helm of an ever-evolving Texas culinary arts empire: Grupo La Gloria, a diverse and growing collection of signature restaurants and culinary projects. Hernandez was also an integral part in San Antonio being designated a UNESCO World Heritage Creative City of Gastronomy.

A patron of the arts, dedicated to community sustainability and the fostering of local talent and local youth, Hernandez is dedicated to showcasing the work of local and Mexican artists in all his restaurants, products, and projects. Hernandez is also the founder and host of the largest Day of the Dead celebration in the United States, including an enormous lighted night parade attracting more than 150,000 visitors each year, and this year broadcast on NBCUniversal's Peacock television throughout the United States and Mexico. Hernandez has hosted this brilliant River Walk spectacle for four years, drawing from the design and artistry of Mexican artists and craftsman from Mexico City and San Antonio to create unique and colorful river barges.

Chef Hernandez also hosts San Antonio's large annual benefit, The Paella Challenge, which is an event that raises scholarship funds for young cooks and future chefs through the Kitchen Campus Foundation.

With exciting projects in the works for new culinary concepts in locations across the city and state, Hernandez is one of the hardest-working, happiest chefs in Texas, forever giving back to his hometown community that has so generously opened their hearts to him.

from all walks of life, including three former Presidents and numerous dignitaries from around the globe. A standout moment in his career was the honor of serving President Obama at the White House, a cherished memory he shared with his entire family.

He actively volunteers and maintains affiliations with several organizations, including the City of San Antonio Small Business Advisory Commission, San Antonio Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, National Association of Catering Executives, International Special Events Society, The Texas Restaurant Association, The Greater Chamber of Commerce, and the San Antonio Food Bank.

When not dedicating his time to business and community endeavors, Mark enjoys cherishing moments with his family. He shares a deep and enduring bond with his wife Denise, whom he has known since childhood, and they are blessed with four children aged between 12 and 20. In his leisure, Mark finds joy in gathering around the table with loved ones, savoring delicious food, and creating lasting memories filled with laughter.
